The top section of the page features a central human figure surrounded by various icons connected by dashed lines. Clockwise from the top left, the icons are: a forklift with boxes, an envelope, a pencil, a hospital bed, a Euro symbol (€), a heart, a stack of books, a cross in a square, and a family silhouette (two adults and two children).

The bottom left section shows a line drawing of a man and a woman. Both are using hand gestures, indicating they are communicating through sign language.

The diagram features a central clock with two hands. Six lines radiate from the clock to six different icons: a square with a cross, a person pushing a cart with boxes, a calendar, a person shaking hands with another person, a pencil holder containing a ruler, pencil, and scissors, and a dining table with a plate, glass, fork, and knife. Below the diagram, on the left, is a line drawing of a woman in sign language. On the right, the word Ponctualité is written in a bold, serif font.
